

Making a Difference through Change

Collectively around the world we are changing. Now is the time in business where we get a chance to create a new story as change is happening as fast as a mouse click.

In the programme you will learn strategies on how to:

- Manage yourself in times of change.
- Manage your people.
- Manage change.
- Discover three ways you can overcome destructive talk.
- Move forward in changing times using the five-step approach.
- Find out why the 3 F's don't work in business.
- Discover the four keys to change that will increase productivity and creativity.